ROAD PACKAGES

(05 DAYS / 04 NIGHTS)

ABERDARE NATIONAL PARK

Picturesque, steep forested ravines and open moorland characterise the Aberdare National Park has a fantastic range of flora and fauna as well as the most beautiful scenery; its only peer in this respect is Mt. Kenya itself. Its terrain is crisscrossed by mountain streams with pretty waterfalls and babbling water teeming with trout. Game viewing is not completely straightforward in the Aberdare National Park, the tall trees and obscuring undergrowth of the Salient can make it tricky. The rainforest is often shrouded in mist and the high rainfall across this part of Kenya can turn the tracks into treacherous mudslides but are normally navigable if you are in a 4x4 vehicle, except during the wet season when extreme caution is recommended. The park is famous for Treetops, the lodge at which Queen Elizabeth II was staying in 1952 when she was informed of her father's death and her accession to the throne.

LAKE NAKURU NATIONAL PARK

On the floor of the Great Rift Valley, surrounded by wooded and bushy grassland, lies the beautiful Lake Nakuru National Park. Visitors can enjoy the wide ecological diversity and varied habitats that range from Lake Nakuru itself to the surrounding escarpment and picturesque ridges. Lake Nakuru National Park is ideal for bird watching, hiking, picnic and game drives.

MAASAI MARA NATIONAL GAME RESERVE

The Masai Mara is one of the best-known and most popular reserves in the whole of Africa. Masai Marais the most famous National Reserve in Kenya, with its open rolling grasslands and abundance of wildlife renowned for its good game viewing. It sustains all the big five as well as an astonishing wealth of other game. Often a whole range of different species is in view all at one time. Each year usually in July/August the Mara is host to millions of wildebeests who migrate north from Serengeti. The marvelous wide open views and interplay of light and shadow are themselves worth a visit to the Mara.

ACCOMMODATION OPTIONS

TREETOPS LODGE

Located in the Aberdare National Park, the Treetops Lodge Nyeri tree-house lodge on stilts is famous as the place where Queen Elizabeth II visited as a princess and left as queen.

Originally built in 1932, Treetops Lodge lies in the path of an ancient Elephant migratory route between the Aberdare Ranges and Mt Kenya National park, and is strategically sited right in front of a natural watering hole and salt lick, making it the perfect place to view game. Treetops is as much a part of nature as it has an ancient tree growing right through the hotel, with the lodge being built around it. It is the perfect fusion of nature and comfort sporting a rustic look that fits right into the Aberdares

ARK LODGE

Set in the heart of the Aberdare National Park, iconic and yes, quirky. The Ark overlooks a floodlit waterhole and salt lick, which attracts a host of awesome wildlife. Modeled after Noah's Ark, The Ark has four viewing decks with balconies and lounges to provide superb game viewing from the comfort of the lodge. The animals come to you!
